

Occoquan Mills.

THE Proprietors offer for Sale this valuable Estate, consisting of LANDS, MILLS, MILL-SEATS, DWELLING-HOUSES, STORES & other valuable Property—all upon navigation and convenient to market.

To those who are unacquainted with the premises it may be stated that they are situated at the Falls of Occoquan River, in Virginia, which empties into the Potomac 16 miles below Alexandria and about 8 or 10 below Mount Vernon, the seat of the late General Washington.

At no one spot, probably, can there be united more advantages for flour mills, or any kind of manufactory or mechanical operations requiring the agency of water; the stream is large, generally affording enough for twenty water wheels at a time, contiguous to several of the finest wheat counties in Virginia, and being upon navigation has, besides, the whole range of the river Potomac on both sides to its mouth a distance of at least 100 miles. The great mail stage road from north to south passes thro' it, a post office at the spot and a daily mail throughout the year affords early and constant information of the state of markets and whatever else may be interesting. The buildings here in after described, with several others built and owned by different people, gives to the place the appearance of an handsome little village, remarked by strangers for the romantic scenery around it, and by its inhabitants for the unequalled salubrity of its air.

First in importance of the buildings is a very complete Merchant Mill with all the most approved modern machinery for the manufactory of flour, of which article it has and can make twenty thousand barrels a year with ease. Next is a Country Toll Mill, which has given annually three to four hundred barrels of Indian Corn and other grain from its toll alone; there is also a Mill for pounding and grinding Plaster Paris, an article in much request throughout the neighboring countries; a well constructed Saw-Mill in good repair; and a Toll-Bridge that produces twelve hundred and fifty to fifteen hundred dollars a year; besides which there are several well fitted Store-houses, six or eight Dwellings suitable for tradesmen exclusive of their Work-shops, and Stabling for at least fifty head of horses and cattle. The whole is overlooked by a large commodious Stone Mansion-house, with every office suitable for the residence of a genteel family; and at the door is a never-failing Spring of fine Water.

Unimproved, are several valuable Mill-Seats, two of which immediately adjoin the present, and are suppleable with water from the same race and dam; beside these (as there is nearly thirty feet more head and fall of water than has ever yet been found necessary to use in the present works) other mills may be erected so much above, as not to interfere with those already mentioned. Indeed 52 feet fall, which there is here, would admit of all the water being worked twice over if desired.

There is, belonging to the estate, near one thousand acres of LAND, some adjoining and none of it very distant from the mills, mostly in wood and some parts pretty well timbered; though immediately adjoining, are some well improved productive Meadow and Grain Land, & several enclosed Town Lots.

If it be asked why so desirable and productive a property should be offered for sale, it may be answered "that the advanced age and distant residence of two of the partners make a narrower circle of concerns desirable to them—and all the parties are desirous to pay off their debts."

Any person inclinable to purchase will find the price reasonable, and the time of payment for a large proportion of the purchase money will be made as easy as the purchaser could expect or wish.

For further particulars application may be made to JAMES CAMPBELL, at Petersburg; SAMUEL G. GRIFFITH, Esquire, of Baltimore; JAMES TAYLOR, jun. Esq. of Norfolk; or on the premises to NATHANIEL ELICOTT and LUKE WHEELER, the latter of whom will remain a few weeks at this place, to assist in effecting the object of this advertisement.

100 DOLLARS REWARD.

RAN AWAY on the 30th June last, from the estate of Daniel McCarty, deceased, in the county of Westmoreland, and state of Virginia, a Negro Man named JERRY, about thirty-five years of age, dark complexion, about six feet high, a bad countenance, and a remarkable scar across his nose, and another on his head, a little above his forehead; he had on a homespun twilled yarn and cotton round jacket and pantaloons.—There is no doubt but he will change his clothes; it is therefore thought unnecessary to describe them more particularly. It is expected that he has procured a pass, or a forged certificate of his freedom, as he went from a neighborhood where there are many free negroes who write, and from whom he might very readily obtain a copy of their pass, or certificate of freedom. It is confidently expected that he will endeavor to get to some of the northern or eastern states. He was seen a short time since in the town of Baltimore. Thirty Dollars will be given, if taken in the county, and if out of the state and secured in any jail, so that I get him again, the above reward and all reasonable charges paid, if brought home.

Richd. Stuart.

N. B. All masters of vessels and other persons, are hereby forewarned from harboring or employing the above described Negro Man, at their peril, or under the severest penalties of the law.
